The information provided on this form is being obtained for the purpose of ascertaining relevant medical information, requirements and other health care related needs about your child who may participate in excursions, sporting activities or other educational or school activities conducted by or in conjunction with your school.

The information will be used by officers of the NSW Department of Education and Training to assist planning, to support students, and to minimise risks when conducting school excursions, sporting or other school activities.

Other persons or agencies that may be provided with information include, but are not limited to, volunteers and members of external organisations who join with the school or are otherwise involved in the planning or delivery of the excursion, sporting or other school activity; and persons that may be called upon to provide health care treatment or other assistance during or as a consequence of such excursions or activities.

Provision of this information is not required by law. However, a failure to provide the information may mean that your child can not participate in a particular excursion or school activity. In such circumstances the school will make available an alternative educational experience.

Provision of the information will significantly assist the school in planning a safer educational activity.

This information will be stored securely. If you have any concerns about provision of this information, please contact the school principal to discuss further. You may correct any personal information at any time by contacting the school office.

General Permission to Publish Form

School publications provide a means of celebrating student achievement sharing ideas. Publications such as the school magazine 'Myall Mail', school newsletter, school website, and school Facebook page encourage a positive school image and a sense of belonging for students, who are often isolated from their peers.

For this reason, we ask you to complete the following authority, so that any photographs, films, recordings or student work submitted (for example at excursions or workshops) can be published.

Parent/Carer Authority

I HEREBY AUTHORISE and permit the NSW Department of Education (DoE) through Dubbo School of Distance Education, its employees or agents to use my child's work, to photograph my child, and/or to make a vision/sound recording of my child.

These resources may be published, communicated and distributed for educational purposes both in Australia and internationally and may be published in any form or format whether print, electronic, analogue or digital while these resources remain relevant.

I understand DoE, through Dubbo School of Distance Education, may make use of and exhibit this work and these photograph(s), vision/sound recording(s), incorporating my child's image, likeness and/or voice in any media format as it sees appropriate, and I understand these will be the absolute property of the NSW Department of Education throughout the world.

I understand that participation by my child is entirely voluntary, and that no payment of any kind is involved. I understand that any use of this material may identify the child.

Supervision – Conditions of Single Course Provision

The supervisor must

- provide appropriate supervision for the student in their learning environment. They must ensure that the student is not left alone while learning through distance education
- arrange for supervision of the student's tests and examinations and take full responsibility for precautions and safety in all practical work. All formal communication will be addressed to the supervisor.

The School Supervisor certifies that:

- the student is capable of working independently and will be supervised during school timetabled activities.
- tests, examinations and assessment tasks:
 - will be conducted under strict supervision, ensuring that they are the unaided and independent work of the student.
 - examinations will be completed on the date(s) specified by Dubbo School of Distance Education. Assessment tasks will be submitted by the due date.
- work will be completed and submitted in all courses on a weekly basis.
- the supervisor will be contactable by phone or email.
- the student will be provided with resources where required, such as printing, textbooks, reference materials, access to telephone, computer, internet, audio equipment and access to supervised specialist teaching rooms, that meet the Department's current specifications.
- any teaching materials, unmarked learning materials and library books that have been issued by Dubbo School of Distance Education will be returned when the student completes the course or leaves the school.
- procedures are in place to ensure that the parent/carer permission is obtained for the student to attend activities arranged by the distance education school and that the home school will carry out risk assessments related to these activities.
- a suitable and safe work placement for any Vocational Education and Training (VET) course is available.
- access to a suitable venue and supervision for NESA examinations is available.

The School Supervisor agrees to:

- provide their signature on all work submitted to Dubbo School of Distance Education. Note: Any completed learning activity/examination paper/assessment task received without the supervisor's signature may be regarded as invalid.
- interpret and explain instructions or comments in lesson materials and teacher feedback.
- provide assistance with locating necessary materials and resources.
- provide a copy of the student/s timetable to the DSODE teacher and inform them of any timetable changes which may occur.
- ensure that the student satisfactorily participates in oral and practical work as prescribed by the course.
- ensure that portfolios of work and depth studies are completed when required.
- provide timely advice to Dubbo School of Distance Education about illness or absences which have affected the student's ability to complete set activities.
- download student reports through DEMS as instructed by DSODE and provide a copy to the students' parents/carers.

Official NESA course warning letters issued by Dubbo School of Distance Education will be forwarded to the student's parent/carer with a copy to the student's home school.

IMPORTANT: Not complying with the above conditions may lead to a student not meeting course requirements or a review of the single course provision.

By signing below the school supervisor agrees to the abovementioned conditions and has discussed them with the student.

Principal's Agreement – Conditions for Single Course Provision

For an enrolment to be accepted, the Home School Principal guarantees:

- the student is capable of working under the supervision of a nominated member of their teaching staff who will supervise the study arrangements of the student including assignments, formal examinations and assessment tasks.
- that the required time is allocated to the student within the home school's timetable to complete coursework and study.
- the student will return course work once a week in this course, as per NESA requirements.
- the student will be provided with the required support resources, e.g. work room, textbooks, computer, use of specialist rooms (such as a laboratory), access to phone and email.
- the student will be supervised at the home school, by a suitably qualified teacher, whilst the student carries out any practical exercises and practical project work.
- examinations and assessment tasks will be supervised at the home school by a member of their teaching staff and will be held on the dates and under the conditions specified by Dubbo School of Distance Education.
- any resources issued during the course will be returned to Dubbo School of Distance Education as required.
- the student is entered by the home school for the RoSA, Preliminary Certificate or the Higher School Certificate, indicating that the course is studied "elsewhere" at the Dubbo School of Distance Education NESA number 8112.
- where the student is applying for single course provision in a Higher School Certificate course, the Preliminary requirements for that course have been met.
- written notification will be made to Dubbo School of Distance Education in the event of a change of school supervisor.
- to notify Dubbo School of Distance Education of any special needs, special circumstances, special provisions or learning adjustments made for this student.
- The home school is responsible for paying the required fees to Dubbo School of Distance Education.

 Any resource lent to a Single Course student will be the responsibility of the home school. Dubbo School of Distance Education will be reimbursed by the home school for any resources not returned by the student at the completion of the course.

Please complete the following:
